Last Will And

We, the graduating class of 1975, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as our Last Will and Testament, and appoint our advisor, Miss Marrison, as Executrix, without bond.

First, we direct our Executrix to give the same attention and gentle care to future graduating classes.

Second, we give, devise, and bequeath unto future graduating classes all the privileges, positions, and responsibilities of Seniors.

Third, we devise and bequeath the following:

Mr. Vasselli — A school full of "Superstars."

Mr. Gadson — A copy of Be Your Own Best Friend.

Mr. Shmurak — A discharge from cafeteria supervision.

Miss Cordasco — A "You're a Banana" button.

Mr. Miranda — A bell to break up fights.

Mr. Abdelgany — A date with a fossil.

Miss Alamo — More winners in art contests.

Mr. Alexander — The sun to blend with his "shades."

Mrs. Alsbrook — Good reports about the cheerleaders.

Miss Alston — A wedding.

Mrs. Alston — A gift certificate to the Charcoal Pit.

Mr. Aromando — Students who come early to his classes.

Mr. Barone — A girls' basketball team that doesn't play football.

Miss Belmear — Muhammad Ali's boxing gloves.

Miss Bornstein — A copy of Lose 10 Pounds A Week Through Voodoo.

Mr. Brown — A mystery tour of downtown Bayonne.

Mrs. Brownlee — A happy retirement.

Mrs. Caliolio — Any color gym slacks.

Mrs. Capanegro — A transfer.

Miss Clemente — A modeling job.

Miss Cywinski — A prize for journalistic excellence.

Mr. Davis — Better students.

Mr. DeSalvo — An autographed picture of himself.

Mr. Feller — A job with Bozo the Clown.

Miss Forgione — A soda machine.

Mrs. Gavin — First prize in a baking contest.

Mr. Gerraty — A willowy blonde.

Mr. Giffoniello — Dr. J.

Mrs. Goldstein — A mini-skirt.

Miss Gonzalez — A Spanish class interested in Spanish.

Testament

Mr. Haynes — Nothing.

Mr. Hunt — A supply of Hunt's tomato sauce.

Mr. J. Jones — Self-stamped late passes.

Mr. Kwasnik — A larger blackboard.

Mr. Lee — Students who come to his meetings.

Mr. Lioi — A "Mighty Mouse" cape.

Miss Morrison — Clyde and his Rolls Royce.

Mr. Maughan — A gaint economy size brief case.

Mrs. McWhorter — A pair of "limousines for the feet."

Mr. Melito — Kojak's lollipops.

Mrs. Moncrieffe — A special intercom from her room to Miss Bornstein's.

Mr. Nelson — More shop equipment.

Mr. Nole — A new job — anywhere.

Mr. Panigrosso — The Divine Miss M.

Mrs. Ramos — More bi-lingual classes.

Mrs. Roberts — Her own iron.

Mrs. Rosenthal — Her own bubble gum machine.

Mr. Seoane — Centerfold in Woodchopper's Annual.

Mr. Sher — Patience.

Miss Shurn — Tuba lessons.

Mr. Straim — An automatic puzzle-maker.

Miss Tyson — A job with the Pointer Sisters.

Mr. Wall — A supply of Joe Namath Panty Hose.

Miss Ware — A recording studio.

Mrs. White — An appearance on "To Tell the Truth."

Mrs. Williams — A winning ticket in the Millionaire Lottery.

Mr. Young — A piano with all the keys.

Mr. Zenda — A still-life of Moms Mabley.

The Counselors — More time to do their work.

The Librarians — A trip to a book store.

The Clerks — Phones that don't ring.

The Guards — Maroon and white uniforms.

The Cafeteria Staff — The Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval.

The Custodians — A year's supply of Clean & Shine.

In witness thereof, we, the graduating class of 1975, sign, seal, publish, and declare this our Last Will and Testament in the presence of our advisor, Miss Morrison, and our teachers.

Acknowledgements

The staff of the '75 Limelight appreciates the assistance of our advisor, Miss Morrison, as well as the assistance of Miss Bornstein, Miss Forgione, Mr. Panigrosso, Mr. O'Connor, and the Glamour School Photographers for their professional help in the production of this annual.

Alma Mater

Sing out loud and clear for Alma Mater
A song sweet and true that will ring through the years.

When fondly recall the moments of gladness
And friendships so dear
we will treasure anew.

Though farewell one day we must say with loyalty we keep in sight
These our colors maroon and white the emblem of our honor bright.

So Broadway with pride
We echo your praises
The school we all love
will remain in our hearts.
